BRAGATO RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

The Fellowship

The Bragato Research Fellowship may be awarded annually by the Board of Trustees at their sole discretion. Only one Fellowship per annum may be awarded.

The Fellowship will be such amount as the Trustees agree up to a maximum of NZ$15,000 toward the cost of travel, accommodation, manuals, books, course fees, and course materials. The Fellowship will be for one year only, but recipients may re-apply in subsequent years. Applicants may also apply for other grants.

Applications for this Fellowship close on the 28 February each year.

Eligibility

The Fellowship may be awarded to any student who has completed a Masters degree or Doctorate and who is involved in ongoing research. The applicant must be a New Zealand resident.

The planned research must be at a university or other research institution in New Zealand or overseas, recognised for its research in subjects related to the wine industry. The research must be in a subject of benefit to the NZ industry.

Selection Criteria

Applicants will be required to show a strong academic background and objectives that will have a long term benefit to the New Zealand wine industry.

A treatise on the research subject will be an important part of the selection process. Applicants will be required to submit full details outlining their work experience to date, study already undertaken, research involvement to date, and their plans and aspirations upon completion of the research undertaken.

Successful fellows will be required to furnish a full written report at the end of the Fellowship and may be required to present a paper at the Romeo Bragato Conference

Selection Panel

Applicants may be interviewed by a selection panel appointed by the Board of Trustees. The decision of the Selection Panel will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Privacy

The personal information provided by any applicant for this fellowship will be used only for the administration of the award and for publishing the successful applicant's name and photo. Personal details will not be released to any other party without the applicant's permission having been given.
